

AKISAN Executive Seven Point Priority for 2010 - 2012 By Dr. Buffer Eyo, National President

Akwa Ibom Isongo -o....

The Chairman, Chris Oyobio, Members of BOT, Chapter Presidents, AKISAN Members and Stakeholders:

I give honor and glory to the Almighty God (Akwa Abasi Ibom), and thank all of you for giving me the opportunity to serve you as your National President for the next two years. This is a new dawn and I want to assure you that AKISAN is in good hands.

There is so much to be done within such a short time frame with only 22 or so months ahead of us. While we cannot solve all AKISAN problems in two years we must focus on a few strategic and measurable goals herein outlined as our Seven-Point Priority Consideration:-

- 1. Team Work and Collaboration
- 2. Restoration and Expansion
- 3. Brand and Image
- 4. Cultural Center
- 5. AKISAN Constitution
- 6. Empowerment
- 7. Unity and Progress

Team Work and Collaboration

I have already structured the executive cabinet with the support of Miami Chapter. Team work and effective collaboration will be our watch word. I would like to use this opportunity to ask all members and all Akwa Ibomites to join us and Miami Chapter to deliver anticipated shared results for AKISAN.

Restoration and Expansion

We are in the process of contacting key leaders in the Government of Akwa Ibom State to normalize and restore AKISAN-Akwa Ibom State Government relationship and effective partnership between those of us in Diaspora and at Home. We plan to engage AKSG regarding a Diaspora delegation to participate in the 23rd Anniversary of our state creation. We will leverage on this restored relationship to expand AKISAN through a focused membership drive.

Brand and Image

The first National Council/BOT meeting will be held in November 2010 in Miami. During this meeting, we will outline the strategic plan for the Association to include how we intend to collaborate with other Akwa Ibom Organizations and Government to promote and help develop our state by protecting and promoting a strong Akwa Ibom Brand and Image globally within the constraints of our
